NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY,

EVANSTON AND CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

HENRY WADE ROGERS, LL. D., President.

One Hundred and Sixty Professors and Instructors and over Two Thousand Students.

THE UNIVERSITY INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING DEPARTMENTS:

1. THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS, with four regular courses of study and opportunity for a select course.
2. THE PREPARATORY SCHOOL. This gives preparation for any college and furnishes academic studies preparatory to professional or practical pursuits.
3. THE SCHOOL OF ORATORY.
4. THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, in which all departments of music are taught.
5. THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE gives young women the highest advantages of a well regulated home. They are admitted to the same courses of study and receive the same degrees as young men. Those who choose may pursue preparatory and academic studies and music.
6. THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.
7. THE SCHOOL OF LAW.
8. THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.
9. THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY.
10. THE SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY.
11. THE WOMAN'S MEDICAL SCHOOL.

This University is located in Evanston, the most beautiful suburb of Chicago, and one of the most attractive summer resorts on the Great Lakes. It is unusually free from immoral influences. The sale of intoxicating drinks within four miles of the University is prohibited by the charter. The Schools of Law, Medicine, Pharmacy and Dentistry are located in Chicago.

For catalogues of the College of Liberal Arts address the PRESIDENT, Evanston, Ills.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE
NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

RULE 1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 A. M., spend a half hour in devotional exercises, to be conducted by a member of the Conference appointed by the Bishop, proceed with the business at 9 A. M., and adjourn at 12 M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

RULE 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

RULE 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

RULE 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

RULE 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

RULE 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions should intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

- (1.) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
- (2.) To adjourn.
- (3.) To take a recess.
- (4.) To lay on the table.
- (5.) For the previous question.
- (6.) To postpone to a given time.
- (7.) To refer.
- (8.) To substitute.
- (9.) To amend.
- (10.) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

RULE 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a question of privilege.

RULE 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

RULE 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

RULE 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

RULE 17. These rules shall not be suspended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

ANDERSON, IND., Wednesday, March 30, 1892.

The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened for the Forty-ninth Annual Session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city of Anderson, Indiana, at 8:30 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, March 30, 1892. At this hour Bishop James N. Fitz Gerald took the chair, and opened the Conference by giving out the 822d hymn,

"Jesus, the name high over all," after which J. W. Lowry and D. F. Stright led in prayer.

The Bishop then read portions of the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, and of the tenth chapter of Romans. After the singing of the 834th hymn,

"The King of Heaven his table spreads," the Bishop consecrated the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and proceeded to administer the same, assisted by the Presiding Elders.

Roll.—The Secretary of the last session then called the roll of the members of the Conference, and the following answered to their names :

In favor of said proposition, 72; against, 63.

Reserve Delegates.—On motion of A. E. Mahin, the action of yesterday as to the manner of electing the Reserve Delegates to the General Conference, was rescinded. On motion of the same, the two names having the highest number of votes on the ballot for Reserve Delegates just read, were declared to be the duly elected Reserve Delegates. George H. Hill and Joshua E. Ervin, being the two highest on said ballot, were accordingly declared to be the Reserve Delegates.

Committee on Course of Study.—On motion of B. A. Kemp, seconded by C. G. Hudson, a committee was ordered, to which shall be referred the matter of a proposed change in the form of the Disciplinary course of study for ministers. C. King, W. D. Parr, F. M. Stone, O. S. Harrison and C. C. Cissell were appointed such committee.

Thirteenth Question.—The Thirteenth Question was then taken up—“Who are the Traveling Deacons of the Second Class?” The following were advanced to the Second Class of Deacons: Charles O. Merica, John F. Bailey and Arthur G. Neal. The following were continued as Deacons of the First Class: William B. Randolph, Sherman A. Ross, Charles N. Mikels, Jay C. Dorwin, Ulysses S. A. Bridge. The Conference asked that the following be left without appointment to attend school: Sherman A. Ross, John F. Bailey, Jay C. Dorwin, Ulysses S. A. Bridge.

Fourteenth Question.—The Bishop next called the Fourteenth Question—“What Traveling Deacons have been Elected Elders?” The following were elected to Elders’ Orders: James M. Lewis, Asher S. Preston, Charles M. Hollopeter, Dorie V. Williams, Cassius C. Cissel, Joseph A. R. Gahring, Wilbur M. Nelson, George W. Green, Francis M. Lacey, Madison A. Harlan, Daniel H. Guild, Homer C. Ashcraft, Charles O. Merica. William J. Gamble was continued as a Deacon of the Second Class, and given a supernumerary relation.

S. Powell.—It was asked that S. Powell be left without appointment to attend school.

Thirty-fourth Question.—The Conference then considered the Thirty-fourth Question—“Where Shall the Next Conference be Held?” Mishawaka, Logansport, Broadway, and Decatur were nominated and represented. After the representation Decatur was withdrawn. Mishawaka received 94 votes, and Logansport, Broadway, 39 votes, whereupon Mishawaka was declared to be the next place of session for the Conference.

Accounts of the Treasurer.—The Treasurer asked for a committee to audit his accounts, and W. D. Parr and J. K. Walts were appointed such Auditing Committee.

Statistical Report.—The Statistical Secretary presented his report, and read the totals, which report was received, and it was ordered that tables Nos. I and II be printed in the Minutes.

Executive Session.—The time set for the Executive Session having arrived, notices were given, and the Conference went into private session with closed doors. The report of the Board of Stewards was considered carefully. The basis of H. Woolpert was changed to $400.

On motion, a collection was taken for R. Tobey, amounting to $37.50. The Stewards were directed to fix the basis of W. B. Randolph according to their best judgment. The basis of J. W. McDaniel was put at $400. On motion of C. G. Hudson, the report of the Board of Stewards was adopted.

Value of Unproductive Property.—On motion of A. E. Mahin, it was ordered that hereafter in the list of questions sent to the applicants for Conference funds they shall be required to state the value also of unproductive property held by them.

Adjournment.—On motion, the Conference adjourned. The doxology was sung. The benediction was pronounced by J. W. Welch.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY, April 4, 1892.

Monday morning the Conference assembled at 8:30, the Bishop in the chair. J. S. Bitler conducted the devotions of the first thirty minutes. A testimony meeting was held with a multitude of stirring testimonies. Business was resumed at 9 o'clock.

Journal.—The Journal of Saturday's session was read and approved. By consent, C. King was allowed to cast his ballot in favor of the change of the Second Restrictive Rule. R. F. Brewington was granted leave of absence.

Second Question.—The Second Question was taken up—"Who are Admitted on Trial?" The following brethren were introduced, recommended and admitted on trial: Charles M. Elliott, recommended by the Bluffton Quarterly Conference; Eli B. Westhafer, recommended by the Avilla Quarterly Conference; Morris H. Conference Relations.—The Committee on Conference Relations presented their report. The Bishop requested the Conference to ask for the transfer to this Conference of J. S. Bitler, from the Southeast Indiana Conference, and J. H. Bickford, from the West Virginia Conference, and, on motion, the Conference requested the transfer of the said brethren. The Bishop announced their transfer to this Conference. On motion, they were both changed from supernumerary to effective. The relation of T. J. Elkin was changed to effective. U. A. Foster was continued in his present relation, and it was requested that he be left without appointment to attend school. A. C. Gerard was given a supernumerary relation. E. Holdstock was made superannuated.

Reports.—The following committees presented their reports, which were adopted and ordered to be printed in the Minutes: On Education, on Popular Amusements, on Sabbath Opening at the Columbian Exposition, on Parsonages and Furniture, on Church Extension, on the American Bible Society, on the Woman's Home and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, on the Tract Cause, on the Book Concern.

The Bishop retired with the Presiding Elders, after calling M. Mahin to the Chair.

H. M. Lamport.—A paper was presented with reference to the payment of a life insurance policy to the heirs of the Rev. H. M. Lamport by the Northwestern Life Insurance Company, containing a resolution to that effect, and the resolution was passed, and the members of the Conference desired to sign the same.

Reports.—The following committees presented their reports, which were adopted: On Sunday-schools, to Audit the Accounts of the Secretary, on Temperance, on the Conference Course of Study, on the Epworth League.

Memorial on Boundaries.—A memorial to the General Conference was presented, and unanimously adopted, as follows:

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Session Assembled at Omaha, May 2, 1892:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—The North Indiana Conference having received from the Presiding Elders of the Northwest Indiana Conference a notice of a request to your Honorable Body to take the city of Logansport, Indiana, from the North Indiana Conference, and annex the same to the Northwest Indiana Conference, does hereby respectfully, but most firmly, protest against any such change; and hereby represents to the General Conference, and its Committee on Boundaries, that great damage and injustice would result to the North Indiana Conference from such change; and that any such change of boundary would be contrary to the wishes of our churches in the city of Logansport.

We believe that all the connections of Logansport, its railway connections, and all the sentiment of our three prosperous churches in said city, naturally indicate that Logansport belongs to the North Indiana Conference, and that it should not in all fairness be transferred from our jurisdiction.

Relying upon the fairness and sense of equity of the members of your Committee on Boundaries, your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

Official Journal.—On motion of C. G. Hudson, the Secretary was directed to cause the Minutes of the past quadrennium to be suitably bound, the said bound volume to be the official journal of this Conference for the past four years, and as such to be transmitted for examination to the coming General Conference.

Memoirs.—On motion of the Secretary, the memoirs read at the Memorial Service yesterday, were adopted and ordered to be printed in the Minutes.

Program.—On motion of the same, the Presiding Elder of Goshen District and the Pastor at Mishawaka, were directed to prepare and print a suitable program of anniversaries and services for the next session of this body.

Mrs. Cook.—By consent, Mrs. Cook, a member of the church at Anderson, addressed the Conference in behalf of the Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, lately in session in Boston, Mass., and of the members of that organization in Indiana, urging the members of this body to use their influence for suitable temperance legislation in this State.

Communication.—A communication from the Methodist

Historical Society, of this State, was read, which was received, and, on motion, ordered to be placed on file.

Training Schools for Lay Workers.—The following resolutions were adopted :

WHEREAS, At no time in the history of the church has there been greater necessity, nor a stronger desire, than now to reach the masses ; and

WHEREAS, Throughout our church our consecrated young men, called to be neither Local Preachers nor Exhorters, who, having the love of souls at heart, can sing and pray, and, properly trained, could do most effective work in this home field and constitute a valuable corps of helpers for our overworked city Pastors ; and

WHEREAS, Some of the best men in our church, among them four of our Bishops—and namely, Walden, Ninde, Joyce and Newman—have seen the importance of this unused power and have recommended training schools under the care of our church ; therefore be it

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we most heartily indorse this suggestion for these Bishops to inaugurate and establish training schools in our large cities for lay workers for city mission work.

Resolved, That we memorialize the next General Conference to authorize the establishment of one or more Lay Workers' Training Schools, to study the best methods for successful home city mission work.

Lay Conference Journal.—On motion of the Secretary, he was authorized to print in the minutes a brief resume of the Journal of the Lay Electoral Conference.

Semi-Centennial Celebration.—On motion of W. D. Parr, a committee of one from each District was ordered to be raised to take into consideration the matter of the celebration of the semi-centennial of the organization of the North Indiana Annual Conference, the Presiding Elders to make the nominations.

Reports.—The following reports were read and adopted : The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, the report of the Treasurer of the Conference, and Apportionment of Benevolences for next year.

Salary Reports.—The following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Statistical Secretary, in preparing his blanks for the next year, so arrange them that the house rent and the cash receipts be printed in separate columns.

Greetings to Missionaries.—On motion of A. Greenman, the Secretary was directed to convey the greetings of the Conference to its members who are missionaries in foreign fields.

T. S. Johnson.—A communication was read from T. S. Johnson, Missionary to India, asking the benevolent members of the Church to make contributions of $25 to $35 a year, for the support of native workers in India, which was directed to be placed on file.

Statistical Cards.—The following resolutions were adopted :

WHEREAS, The Rev. T. C. Neal, of our Conference, has invented the "Climax Statistical Card," for reports of Pastors to annual Conferences; and,

WHEREAS, These cards have been used with great success in this and other Conferences; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we heartily indorse Brother Neal's card, and respectfully petition the General Conference, at its coming session, to adopt it, and secure its publication for use instead of the slips heretofore used.

Resolved, That we instruct our Delegates to present this request and work for the adoption of the Climax Card.

Memorial to the General Conference.—The following memorial to the General Conference was adopted :

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church :

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—

WHEREAS, There is a growing demand and necessity among our churches for a closer and more intimate episcopal supervision, demanding the presence of our Bishops among our people; and

WHEREAS, It has been found impossible under our present plan of General Superintendency, to meet this demand; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the North Indiana Conference, that the General Conference should group our Annual Conferences into Episcopal Districts of not more than eight, nor less than four Annual Conferences; and that the General Conference Committee on Episcopacy, shall appoint our Bishops (Missionary Bishops excepted), to said districts for a term of four years; and at the expiration of the appointment of a Bishop to a District, he shall not be reappointed to the same District.

J. W. Welch.—A supernumerary relation was granted to J. W. Welch.

Publication of the Minutes.—The following order was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary be hereby instructed to publish four thousand copies of the Minutes of this session, as the official journal of the session; that the Minutes be sent to the Presiding Elders in quantities proportioned to the number of members in full connection in each District; that the Presiding Elders distribute them to the preachers in charge in proportion to the number of members in full connection on each charge, and settle with the Secretary within sixty days after they receive the Minutes; that each preacher be required to pay for his quota of Minutes at the time that he receives them; that the Secretary be hereby authorized to include in estimating the cost of the Minutes, the expense of any blanks, and any incidental expenses that he, or the Statistical Secretary, or the Treasurer, may necessarily incur.

The Bishop came in and took the chair.

Relations.—It was requested that H. E. Sweitzer be left without appointment, to attend school. The Conference asked, on motion, for the transfer of W. R. Seuman to this body from the Central Ohio Conference. The Chair announced his transfer. His relation was changed from supernumerary to effective.

Resolution to the Anderson Church.—The following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference, do hereby express our sincere and hearty thanks to the members of our church in the city of Anderson, with whom we have held this session, and to the hospitable citizens, in whose homes we have passed these pleasant days, for all their attention and welcome, and assure them that we shall sincerely cherish the acquaintances we have formed with them, which we expect to continue both here and in the many mansions.

Resolved, That we hereby return our thanks to Brother Herrick, the pastor, and to the Committee of Entertainment, for the faithfulness with which they have ministered to us and anticipated our every wish.

Resolved, That we thank the choir and its leader, and the organist who has presided with so skillful a touch at the beautiful new organ, for the excellent music with which they have so materially contributed to the success of our services and anniversaries.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the daily papers of Anderson for their reports and many kind words.

C. G. HUDSON.	M. MAHIN.
L. J. NAFTZGER.	J. W. WELCH.
T. C. NEAL.	J. B. ALLEMAN.

Bishop Fitz Gerald.—The following was unanimously adopted by a rising vote :

Resolved, That the North Indiana Conference does hereby express to Bishop James N. Fitz Gerald, the great pleasure and sincere enjoyment of all its members in his presidency over this body, and in all his ministrations during this session. His urbanity, his kindness, his wise counsels, his rapid dispatch of business, as well as the deep spirituality of his sermon, have all marked this session as one especially to be remembered.

Resolved, That we shall heartily welcome Bishop Fitz Gerald among us and we trust that the providence of God will frequently return him to us to preside over our Conference. Our prayers shall attend him that the strengthening grace of our common Father may ever sustain him in all his arduous duties, in his long and tedious journeys, and in all his cares for our widespread denomination. May success crown all his labors, and may there be for him a bright crown of rejoicing that fadeth not away.

REPORTS.

ON EDUCATION.

We present the report of the Board of Visitors to DePauw University as a part of our report, as follows :

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

To the North Indiana Conference :

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—Your corporate Visitors to DePauw University, take pleasure in reporting that this is the most prosperous year in all respects, in the history of the University. The attendance is larger than ever before. We have made occasional visits during the school year, and uniformly have found every department approaching the high ideal of modern education. President John has not only maintained the high standard of efficiency in the administration of the University hitherto attained, but has increased greatly in reputation, both at home and abroad as a scholar and a thinker.

At our annual meeting in June, a number of changes were made in the Faculty of the Asbury College of Liberal Arts. President John was relieved of departmental work, and Clarence A. Waldo, A. M., of Rose Polytechnic Institute, was elected Professor of Mathematics. Prof. O. P. Jenkins had been called from the Chair of Biology to the corresponding chair in Leland Stanford Junior University. We greatly regretted the necessity of accepting his resignation, but were fortunate in securing Prof. L. M. Underwood, Ph. D., whom we elected to the Chair of Botany. Dr. J. B. DeMotte, who so long and efficiently filled the Chair of Physics, resigned in order to continue in the lecture field, and Prof. J. P. Naylor, M. S., of Indiana University, was chosen his successor. These new Professors have not disappointed the expectation created by their reputation in other institutions, and with the efficient work of the other Professors, all of whom are at their posts, this College is gaining on its hitherto high rank among the Colleges of the land.

At the beginning of the present year the gentleman's hall was vacated as a dormitory and is now devoted to school purposes. By this change, the Biological and Botanical Laboratories have more suitable quarters, and the Schools of Theology and Law, better accommodations.

The School of Theology is far better equipped than ever before. While the Faculty remains the same, it has not only more commodious quarters for school, but the beautiful Florence Hall has been completed and furnished at a cost of about $20,000, mainly the gift of Mrs. W. C. DePauw and her daughter Florence, and is now occupied by the students as a dormitory and boarding hall, under their own management. It is well adapted to its purpose, and is neatly and orderly kept.

The Schools of Law, Military Science, Music, Art, and the Preparatory School, we found in a most excellent condition and improving—ably fulfilling the purposes of their founding. In short, we most heartily commend the entire University, and hope the members of this Conference will urge all young people of their acquaintance who desire a liberal or professional education, to seek it at DePauw.

We also mention with pleasure that under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., the evangelists Potter and Miller, of Chicago, conducted revival services for two weeks in the University, and about 200 students professed religion during the meetings.

We recommend that Bishop Thomas Bowman and Hon. C. C. Binkley be elected Trustees; that C. G. Hudson and J. K. Walts be elected Visitors to DePauw University, and W. D. Parr and H. N. Herrick, Visitors to DePauw School of Theology, and that $1,000 be apportioned among the Districts for the DePauw School of Theology.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We are glad to report this school in a highly prosperous condition. The income of the $500,000 endowment is sufficient for all expenses. Prof. Bradley has returned from Europe, and is doing efficient work. Dr. Little who succeeded to the chair made vacant by the death of Dr. Bennett, is giving the highest satisfaction, and is undoubtedly a great acquisition to this school and to Methodism in the West. President Ridgeway and the other members of the faculty are all that could be desired in a first-class theological school, and we cheerfully commend this Institute to all young men wishing to thoroughly fit themselves for the ministry. We recommend as visitors, M. S. Marble, S. Light and F. G. Browne.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We recognize the important work this Board is doing in our church, and call upon our pastors and people loyally to carry out the instructions of the Discipline. We recommend:

That Children's Day be observed in every church, a collection be taken and held sacredly as their offering.

All collections for the Sunday-school Fund taken on Children's Day should go to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, and if the General Educational Collection be taken on the same Sunday, that is on Children's Day, the combined collections should be equally divided between the Sunday-school Fund and the General Fund.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

The communication received from the Boston School of Theology shows that institution, which exists for the good of world-wide Methodism, to be in a most prosperous condition. We recommend most heartily this oldest institution of its kind among us to all seeking a thorough preparation for the Christian ministry.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

It is with joy that we hear of the continued prosperity of this School of the Prophets. The beautiful grounds, unequaled library and learned faculty easily place this school in the first rank. We recommend Drew Seminary most heartily.

H. N. HERRICK, Chairman.

F. G. BROWNE, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society submit the following report:

We rejoice in the great prosperity of our educational work in the South, both among the colored and white people. We regard this work of supreme importance to the church and country; and pledge ourselves to show our sincerity by doing the utmost to raise our full apportionment. We believe our church should hold with persistent fidelity to all it has attained, and meet with a most liberal hand the urgent, growing demands among the blacks and whites.

We cordially recommend "THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATOR" as a valuable helper in the Southern work.

We repeat the recommendation that the first Sabbath in July be observed in our Conference, as far as practicable, as "Freedmen's Aid Day," at which time a collection shall be taken in all our charges for this work.

C. H. BROWN,

Secretary.

S. LIGHT,

Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We recognize the Church Extension Society as one of the most necessary and important evangelistic agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. We rejoice, with devout thanksgiving to God in the incalculable good thus far accomplished by this agency.

3. Believing that the work of this Society is still one of great urgency, we pledge to it our hearty and earnest support, and we will endeavor in the coming year to largely increase our collections in its behalf.

J. M. LEWIS,

Secretary.

G. H. HILL,

Chairman.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

We are well pleased that our people have done so much for the comfort of our ministers and their families, in providing good parsonages.

We recommend that an increased zeal be shown by our laity in furnishing the parsonage in every charge with heavy furniture, stoves, carpets, and all other articles that are especially difficult to move. We desire to see this important work continued until every charge has a commodious parsonage, well furnished.

W. R. WONES,
Secretary.

E. F. ALBERTSON,
Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your committee on the Epworth League would respectfully submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the extensive development of the Epworth League interests in this Conference during the past year, and pray for continued enlargement.

We ask that columns be provided for Epworth League statistics in the printed minutes of this Annual Conference.

We greatly appreciate the able addresses delivered by Bishop Fitz Gerald and Rev. C. E. Bacon at the Epworth League anniversary service of this Conference session.

We recommend the Rev. J. M. Lewis as a member of the State Committee to arrange the program for the coming State Epworth League Convention.

We recommend that this Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to so provide as to recognize the President and First Vice-President of each Epworth League Chapter as members of the Quarterly Conference.

We recommend that this Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to constitute the work of the Epworth League into State organizations, instead of the General Conference District organizations.

M. A. HARLAN, Secretary.

G. H. HILL, Chairman.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

Resolved, That we believe that the work of both home and foreign missions is, at this period of their progress, most encouraging, and the means used are signally blessed.

Resolved, That in proportion as we obey the great command, "Go ye into all the world," doing the work faithfully, and then invoke the showers of grace upon the seed, so we may expect to be blessed personally and as a Church.

Resolved, That we do most heartily commend to our people, the missionary cause as the field to "sow by all waters."

Resolved, That the last year of mission work is one of especially good cheer in India, where nineteen thousand received Christian baptism—a field calling for young ministers and for money.

Resolved, That our home work becomes more urgent as our population increases, and more fruitful of results, looking to general victory and the unity of races in Christ.

Resolved, That the camp-fires of the victorious army of Jesus should be seen on our mountains, and hill tops, and in our valleys.

Resolved, That we, as ministers, will continue to preach missions, and inspire our people to increased, uniform giving, as a principle of their lives.

Resolved, That we approve the idea, set forth by Dr. Buchtel in his address, of putting missionaries on the great steamship lines to work with immigrants.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to work, and give, and pray for "all the fingers of this hand of the church."

T. D. THARP,

Secretary.

J. M. DRIVER,

Chairman.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The officers and members of the Sunday-school Society submit the following report:

Resolved, That each pastor arrange, in the interest of the Sunday-school Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the observance of Good Tidings' Day on the third Sunday of October, 1892.

Resolved, That we, as pastors, put forth an earnest effort to raise the amount, $700 00 appropriated to this Conference.

Resolved, That we believe the Sunday-school Union is doing work for the Master in furnishing lesson literature, papers and books for the needy and helpless in the South and West, and other mission fields.

Resolved, That we rejoice, and give to God the glory for the wonderful success of our Sunday school work during the last Conference year.

We recommend the following as the officers for the coming year: President, J. W. Cain; Vice-Presidents, L. M. Krider, D. V. Williams, C. H. Murray, C. Harvey, R. H. Smith, J. A. Beatty; Treasurer, W. S. Stewart; Secretary, C. King.

J. W. CAIN,
Secretary.

J. H. JACKSON,
President.

TRACT CAUSE.

WHEREAS, There is an increasing demand upon the Tract Society to provide a religious literature for the frontier and the South, and to aid the society in doing special work this year in connection with the publication of religious literature in our foreign missions; and in view of the fact that the society has made a special appropriation of $5,000 to aid Bishop Thornburn's work in Calcutta, India, in his mission press work; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will raise the appropriations made to our charges.

We report the amount raised, last year, $307; this year, $385.

W. H. PIERCE,

E. M. BAKER,

R. S. REED,

Committee.

THE BOOK CONCERN.

Your committee begs leave to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, We have learned from our Book Agent, Dr. Cranston, and from Dr. Moore, the Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, of the marvelous success achieved by them during the past year, and of their efforts to gain still larger results; therefore, be it

Resolved, That inasmuch as we have in our Book Concern better books for Methodists (as well as the cheapest) we urge the purchase and the reading of the same.

Resolved, That we heartily concur in the special plan inaugurated and successfully used last year by the Book Concern, and we recommend the plan to all our pastors the present year.

Resolved, That we advise the purchase and the reading of our Sunday-school periodicals and Epworth League literature in preference to any and all other.

Resolved, That we congratulate our Book Agents and Dr. Moore in their successful management of their respective departments.

H. BRIDGE,	C. H. MURRAY,
E. L. SEMANS,	J. S. McCARTY,
B. SAWYER,	J. W. LOWRY,
	Committee.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society still continues to do a great and impartial work for the uplifting of all nations and individuals, by furnishing them the Holy Scriptures; therefore be it Resolved, that we commend the purpose of the Society and indorse the work of the Rev. W. J. Vigus, our District Superintendent.

Resolved, That we will take a collection for this Society in all our charges.

E. E. NEAL,	F. A. FISH,
H. J. NORRIS,	B. SAWYER,
	G. S. V. HOWARD,
	Committee.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance rejoices in the uncompromising antagonism of our great Church against the liquor traffic, and its advocacy of the legal prohibition of the same as the only true policy of the State; and we hereby reaffirm our devotion to the principle and policy of Prohibition, believing it to be the only effective method of dealing with this monstrous evil. We hold that in every relation and act we should be pronounced against this mighty wrong, and hostile to all forms of complicity and compromise with it. We desire to emphasize our opposition to high license. As a substitute for Prohibition, and a helpful restrictive measure, we declare it to be a delusion and a snare. We believe that the prohibition of the liquor traffic is the paramount issue before the American people. As the morals of the people and the protection of the home is the first concern of good government, we believe that the millions of voters in the Protestant churches of this country should register their votes for the paramount issue.

Resolved, That while we are opposed to taking partisan politics in the pulpit, yet on this most important of all political issues, we call upon our ministers to pronounce most emphatically against any party that in its platform, provides, by license, for the continuance of the traffic. We can not do otherwise and be consistent; for, as a Church, we have declared, that "to legalize the traffic is sin;" and we ought not, we can not—and God helping us—we will not, by any act of ours, be partners in, and be responsible for the evils that result from legalizing sin.

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to the sale of beer, and all other intoxicants, at the World's Columbian Exposition, that is to be held at Chicago.

Resolved, That we ask the Congress of the United States to investigate, and ascertain the amount of alcoholic liquors distilled and made in this country, and how much pauperism, and misery, and crime are caused thereby, and to pass such laws as shall suppress the improper use of such liquors in this land

Resolved, That we will afford aid and comfort to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all kindred organizations which are laboring and praying against this enemy of God and home and native land.

C. U. WADE,
G. N. ELDRIDGE,
J. M. HAINES,

Committee.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Your Committee on Sabbath Desecration makes the following report

There was a divine command given, never to be set aside, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." No work was to be done on that day. By degrees, this day recognized by the Christian Church, has been turned into a day of worldly amusements, such as ball playing, boat ing and racing, so that at this time, the Sabbath is regarded by too many as a day of liberty and pleasure, forgetting that it is set apart for prayer and meditation on holy things.

We regret the frequency of Sunday picnics and assemblages at watering places, and the tendency of professing Christians to desecrate the Sabbath by visiting and engaging in worldly pleasures.

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference, protest against these sinful practices.

Resolved, That we look upon the Lord's Day as sacred, and we will urge our people to observe it as a day of rest and spiritual culture.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

Your Committee on Popular Amusements submits the following report :

Resolved, That we are more than ever convinced that the position of the Church is right, and should be emphasized and clearly defined from all our pulpits.

Resolved, That a vigorous and persistent effort be made through home influence and all our young people's meetings, to suppress the rising tide of evil that comes of card playing, dancing, horse-racing, theater and circus-going, and the like.

Resolved, That with all diligence we seek to pre-empt the hearts and minds of all our young people from the infatuations of these wicked devices by preoccupying with noble aspirations, and by teaching by precept and example.

THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

Believing it to be the duty of nations as well as individuals to observe properly the Christian Sabbath, and that such observance only can place America and Americans in a true position before the civilizations of the world; therefore, be it

Resolved, We, as a Conference, earnestly ask that the gates of the Columbian Exposition be closed to all traffic and visitors on Sunday.

We respectfully recommend that the Honorable Commissioners for Indiana follow the noble and patriotic example of other States, and close Indiana's House on the Sabbath day.

That we ask all ministers and friends of "Sunday Closing" to write to their respective Congressmen, urging that they refuse to vote for additional subsidy, if the Columbian Exposition is to be opened on the Lord's Day.

We recommend that the part of this report relating to Indiana, be forwarded by the Secretary to Indiana's Commissioners.

RESUME OF THE JOURNAL OF THE LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE.

The North Indiana Lay Electoral Conference met in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Anderson, Ind., Friday, April 1, 1892, at 9 A. M. On being called to order, Charles C. Binkley, of Richmond, was elected President. After singing, D. H. Moore, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, offered prayer. Albert A. Small, of Anderson, was elected Secretary. A committee was appointed on credentials, and the roll was made out. A committee was appointed on resolutions. The names of candidates for delegates to the General Conference were announced, and they were introduced. Norman Beckley, of Elkhart; John S. Patterson, of Knightstown; James O'Brien, of Kokomo, and Benjamin G. Shinn, of Hartford City, were nominated.

An informal ballot was taken, and James O'Brien and Norman Beckley received the highest number of votes, and a ballot was cast for them for the first Lay Delegate. The result of the ballot was that Norman Beckley, of Elkhart, was elected first delegate.

A second ballot was cast for the second delegate, and James O'Brien, of Kokomo, was elected second Lay Delegate.

Benjamin B. Shinn and John S. Patterson were elected reserve Lay Delegates by acclamation.

The Conference accepted an invitation from the North Indiana Conference to meet with them in joint session at 1:45 P. M.

Resolutions were adopted favoring equal representation in the General Conference of the Ministry and the Laity. Also in favor of closing the Columbian Exposition on Sunday.

No further business appearing the Lay Conference adjourned.

I, Charles G. Hudson, do hereby certify that I was directed by the North Indiana Conference to print in the Minutes a resume of the proceedings of the North Indiana Lay Electoral Conference; and that the above is a correct resume of said proceedings, as filed by the Secretary of said Conference in the archives of said North Indiana Conference.

MEMOIRS.

THE REV. WILLIAM R. JORDAN.

William Riley Jordan was born near Economy, Wayne county, Indiana, March 17, 1844, and died in Indianapolis, May 7, 1891, aged 47 years, 1 month and 20 days.

He was the son of George M. and Bathsheba Jordan. He came of a sound Methodist stock, from a family which gave three sons to the ministry of our Church, one of whom was also a member of this Conference, dying some years ago, and the other is a member of the Southeast Indiana Conference.

Bro. Jordan was brought up on a farm. During the winter months of each year he had the privileges of the district school. When he was nineteen he entered Asbury University, but soon suspended his studies to enlist in the 133d regiment of Indiana volunteers. He returned from the army with shattered health, at the very verge of death, no one supposing that he could live. By careful nursing he was restored to reasonable health, but all his life suffered from the exposures and privations of his army life.

He again entered the University at Greencastle. After the completion of his course, he taught for some time. He then took a commercial course in Chicago, intending to enter upon a life of business.

But having previously been converted under the labors of our brother, the Rev. J. H. McMahon, he so sensibly felt the call of God to the ministry, that he surrendered all his hopes of a business life, and entered the North Indiana Conference at the session at Warsaw, in 1868.

His appointments were Portland, Anderson Circuit, Farmland, Centerville, Main Street, Peru, Mexico and North Manchester. In 1878 his failing health compelled him to ask for a supernumerary relation. He then spent a few years farming, near Indianapolis and near Hagerstown. He then for three years served as a supply on a charge in the Detroit Conference, hoping that the climate of that State would benefit him. But at the end of his term he found it necessary to return to Indiana, in 1884, when he took a superannuated relation, which he retained as long as he lived. He located in Indianapolis. Nearly every Sunday he filled some pulpit, and was always ready to respond to every call.

As a preacher, Brother Jordan proclaimed a pure, practical gospel. He had no inclination to be visionary in his thought, nor did he dwell on the deep things of theology. He rather chose the themes of every day life, and selected his illustrations from men and nature. He made large use of his careful observation, extensive reading, and his large acquaintance with men. By these he gave abundant food to his hearers, and eloquently made a deep impression upon his congregations. He was abundant in winning souls. He had some very extensive revivals. At Farmland over 200 were converted under his ministry.

In his social life he was agreeable, pleasant, confiding, and true. He was an excellent conversationalist. He was cheerful, jovial, jocular. His friendships were deep and lasting. His love of nature was intense. He made it a constant study.

Brother Jordan was married to Miss Bessie Kibby, daughter of Judge Kibby, of Richmond, October 7, 1874. After nine years of happy life with this true helpmeet, she was taken from him by death. In April, 1885, he married Miss Celia Lathrop, of Michigan, who, with her children, is left to mourn his loss.

During his location in Indianapolis, he was the regular correspondent of the Ministers' Meeting for the Western Advocate, until the last year of his life, when he was obliged to resign the duty.

He made a gallant fight for life, visiting a number of health resorts, but all without any permanent benefit. In February, 1891, he came home to die. He frequently assured his wife and friends that he was perfectly willing to submit to the will of God, and when one of his brother ministers inquired as to his prospects, he replied, "O, I settled that matter years ago." He gradually sank away until he fell on sleep.

His funeral was held in Roberts Park Church, Indianapolis, conducted by Dr. Van Anda, his pastor, assisted by a large number of ministers. He was buried in Crown Hill Cemetery.

A dutiful son, a loving husband, a tender father, a sincere friend, a faithful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, has finished his course, and rests from his labors.

THE REV. JOHN W. SMITH.

John Wesley Smith was born in White county, Ill., January 23, 1820; died at Albion, Ind., June 3, 1891, aged seventy-one years. His father became a traveling minister in the church when John was but two years of age, consequently his entire life has been connected with the Methodist itinerancy. By reference to his private journal we find this notice of his early religious life and training: "My mother took great pains in instilling into my mind the principles of Christianity. I can not remember when I had not ideas of the Supreme Being, of the Savior, of heaven, of human accountability, of the existence of Satan, of the immortality of the soul, the resurrection of the body, of final judgment, and of endless rewards and punishments." He was licensed to preach by Rev. J. B. Mershon in 1845; he entered the North Indiana Conference the same year, was ordained Deacon at Indianapolis by Bishop Janes, in 1847, and Elder two years later, at Logansport, by Bishop Waugh. He gave to the effective work twenty-seven years, and was superannuated eighteen years. As a preacher, he was clear, logical and instructive. During the late Civil War, he was an ardent supporter of the Union, and his voice was heard on the stump and in the field in defense of the land and flag. In the capacity of recruiting officer he enlisted many, and in 1864 went to the front as chaplain of the Forty-eighth Indiana Volunteers. His health becoming impaired, he was compelled to resign and return home. The disabilities incurred during army life continued and increased, ultimately causing his death. In his Christian life he was unfaltering, his faith in God constant, and his belief in the power of Jesus Christ to save, complete. He believed in the doctrine of Christian Perfection, and was a witness to the fact that the "blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth from all sin." Through all his sufferings, which were long and severe, he rejoiced in the love of God, and in the realization that soon he would be called to share "the inheritance of the saints in light." He married Miss Cassandra McKahan, September 22, 1842, who six years ago preceded him to the better land. To them were born eight children, one daughter and seven sons, all of whom, save two, were present at the funeral, they being absent in the Far West. One son, Rev. R. H. Smith, is an honored and successful minister of the North Indiana Conference. His funeral sermon was preached by Rev. D. C. Woolpert, D. D., his presiding Elder, assisted by several members of the Conference. His body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Albion by the side of his wife.

H. M. LAMPORT.

THE REV. ALFRED S. ROGERS.

Alfred S. Rogers was born in Switzerland county, Indiana, January 1, 1849, and died in Fortville, Indiana, August 22, 1891, aged forty-two years. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1867, under the pastorate of the Rev. S. S. McMahan, at sixteen years of age. He was licensed as a local preacher in 1877 by the Rev. L. G. Atkinson. He was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference in 1878, and appointed to the Barbourville charge. After a service of ten months he resigned his charge, with the consent of his Presiding Elder, and entered school at the college of Moore's Hill. Here he spent one year.

During the year of 1881-2, he was a supply on the Perkinsville Circuit in this Conference. At our session in 1882, he was admitted on trial, and, in due time, was admitted in full and graduated to Elders' Orders. His appointments were as follows: Perkinsville, two years; Farmland, two years; Fortville, three years; Pendleton, two years. On all these charges he served with great acceptability and usefulness. He was a clear, forcible, entertaining and eloquent preacher. The writer had the privilege of hearing him several times, and bears glad witness of his great helpfulness in revival services. There was an earnestness about the man that convinced all who heard him, that he fully believed all he preached. As a pastor he was genial, attractive, faithful. All the interests of the church received careful attention at his hands.

Brother Rogers was married December 22, 1869, to Elizabeth Smith, now his sorrowing widow, who was in all things his faithful helpmeet.

About four years ago brother Rogers' health began to fail, yet he labored on, hoping for recovery; instead, the disease only fastened itself deeper in his system. In pain and feebleness he struggled bravely on, until, a few weeks before our last session, he was obliged to desist entirely from preaching. A year ago he asked for a superannuated relation, which he received. From the time he ceased to preach he declined with great rapidity, suffering intense pain almost to the last, and unable to see more than a few.

In all his pain he triumphed gloriously, and full of the hopes of the Gospel, faced the inevitable, and rejoiced in hope of the better life. At last the struggle ceased, and our brother entered into the rest of the people of God.

His funeral took place at Pendleton, conducted by the Rev. B. A. Kemp, assisted by several of the brethren; and he was buried at Pendleton, Ind.

Brother Rogers was one of our most promising young men, and it is a cause of regret to the Conference that he could not have been spared to labor longer among us. Doubtless our Elder Brother knew better than we, and had need of him elsewhere for His glory. Thus early he has entered into his reward, and has been crowned with the triumphant.

THE REV. GEORGE HAVENS.

George Havens came of a truly noble and famous family. He was one of the fifteen children of the well known Rev. James Havens, and of his equally well known wife, whose fame is in all the churches, and whose memory is a great part of every history of the pioneer work of Methodism in Indiana. One son and one daughter of that remarkable family now survive.

George was born in Kentucky some seventy-five or seventy-six years ago. The date can not be given exactly, for the record has been long lost. When he was but a child, he came with his father to this State, and the family was settled near Rushville. Here they lived in all the poverty and hardship of a pioneer preacher's life, while the father ranged far and wide over his great circuits. Three of the sons followed in their father's footsteps.

The subject of this memoir was converted when a lad. He related that when he was fourteen years old he made up his mind to gain heaven, and if there were only one saved, he would be that one. Some little schooling was his, and he attended some time at Greencastle. He was not more than twenty years old when he was licensed to preach, and as he attained his majority he was admitted on trial in the Indiana Conference, in 1838. While a member of that Conference, he was appointed to Shelbyville, Greenfield, Liberty, Knightstown, Laurel, Manchester, Wilmington, New Philadelphia, Fredericksburg, Corydon, Mt. Sterling, South Charge (Indianapolis), Mooresville, Southport, Bellville, and was located one year, and three years was left without appointment on account of the feeble health of his wife.

He was transferred to the North Indiana Conference in 1859, and among us his appointments were Tipton, Miami (twice), Alto (twice), Castleton, Westfield, Fishersburgh, Noblesville, Greenfield, and Cambridge City. In 1876 he was superannuated, and continued in that relation the rest of his days, with the exception of one year, when he ranked as supernumerary.

His fifty-four years of service sum up: In charge, thirty-three years located, one year; without appointment, three years; supernumerary, one year; superannuated at various times, sixteen years.

Brother Havens greatly resembled his father in many of his ways—in his voice and manner of preaching. He was a great revivalist. He was plain spoken, telling the full truth, and fearing none. He preached with energy, power, eloquence. He came up through the great controversies of the earlier days, and he was firmly grounded in all his beliefs. He made friends everywhere, and to this day his praise remains in the charges he served. He was a firm friend, greatly attached to those whom he loved. His influence was felt in the communities in which he dwelt, and during the days of his superannuation he was regarded as one of the precious jewels of the churches among which he lived.

Brother Havens was twice married. His first wife was Miss Nancy R.

McGlaughlin, who died of the cholera about the year 1850. His second marriage was in 1851, to Miss Sarah Lemasters, who died in 1879. There were five children by each of these marriages. Of the ten, seven survive, and were at their father's burial.

After superannuation Brother Havens resided for some years at Rensselaer. Five years ago word was sent to us at Conference that he had sustained a severe stroke of paralysis, and that he was at the point of death. In that understanding we sent him a suitable telegram. He rallied, however, and went to live with his sons at Ladoga, in company with his youngest daughter. This stroke affected his memory and hearing to some extent. He was able to be on the streets, to attend the house of God. He spent much of his time reading the Bible. He was very patient, and in all his loneliness no one ever heard him complain. He prayed he might be taken suddenly and without pain. He often spoke of the probability of instant death, and declared his readiness therefor. Much of the time he lay on his couch he spent talking with God.

Monday, the 7th of March, he was on the streets as usual, and was in his usual health. Tuesday morning he responded to the call, arose, dressed himself and sat down. All at once he was taken with the symptoms of a second stroke of paralysis, and was found by his daughter-in-law in that condition. When the physician said to him that he feared he could not carry him through this sickness, he responded it was all right—he was prepared. He twice requested those around to let him alone, for he wished to go, and was all ready. Taken at 7 o'clock in the morning, he died a little before 10 that same morning, without a struggle.

Short services were held at the residence Wednesday, and that afternoon his remains were taken to Indianapolis, about three miles south of the city. Friday, at 1:30 P. M., the family gathered in a private house, and his funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sanders, pastor of the Southport Circuit, and by the writer. The interment took place quietly Friday, in a private burying ground by the side of his second wife.

Among the great number of our preachers and their wives who have died this Conference year, Father Havens is a prominent one. He was not known to the younger members of the Conference, but the older ones can never forget that resolute face, that useful life, that godly example.

THE REV. MILTON S. METTS.

Milton Sutton Metts was the descendant of a religious race. His maternal grandfather was a Baptist minister, and delivered the very first sermon in Wells county, this State. His father, James, and his mother, Maranda, were life-long Methodists; their cabin was the itinerant's home and preaching place. His brother, William H., was an honored member of this Conference, dying in 1857.

The subject of this memoir was born in Licking county, Ohio, May 8, 1835. He was one of ten children, of whom eight grew to maturity, becoming preachers, physicians, lawyers, or the wives of such, and all doing great honor to their training.

About the year 1837, the entire circle of relatives moved to Indiana, and settled in Wells county, near Murray. Here Milton was brought up on the farm, in the midst of the stern pioneer struggle, that developed his strong, grand manhood. Here he prepared himself for school teaching, which he followed several winters. He attended Fort Wayne College for a time. He then read medicine, with his older brother John as his preceptor, and attended lectures at Cincinnati. He entered into partnership with his brother, and practiced during the years 1858-9.

Brother Metts united with the Church June 15, 1850. New Year's Day, 1851, he was received in full by the Rev. W. S. Birch.

Although he had chosen the profession of a physician, yet he became convinced of his call to preach, and was licensed to exhort October 13, 1859, and licensed to preach by the Rev. G. C. Beeks, January 14, 1860. In April of that year, he was appointed a supply on Decatur Circuit. In 1861, he was admitted on trial in this Conference.

His appointments were as follows: 1861, Anderson Circuit; 1862, Indianapolis Circuit; 1863, Coesse; 1864, Normandy; 1865-6-7, Hagerstown. 1868, Centerville and Cambridge City; 1869-70, Whitewater; 1871, Ridgeville; 1872-3-4, Hartford City; 1875-6, Pierceton; 1874, Columbia City; 1878-9-80, Tipton; 1881, Decatur; 1882-3, Union Charge, Logansport; 1884, Agent Fort Wayne College; 1885-6, Angola; 1887-8, Elwood and Frankton; 1889, Elwood; 1890-1, Muncie Circuit, making thirty-two years of effective service in all.

The early years of his ministry especially were marked by great revivals at every point. At Whitewater, he reported some 400 conversions. Success of nearly equal magnitude crowned his labors at Hagerstown. In every appointment many souls were converted, and the Church built up. But he especially excelled all his life as a church and parsonage builder. If there were no parsonage, he built one. If there were one, he repaired and enlarged it. Under his direction the beautiful church at Tipton was erected; he began the church at Columbia City, and finished the one at Decatur. At Logansport he remodeled three churches. He built the elegant edifice at Elwood, and was busy at such work when his final illness overtook him.

Brother Metts was a great power at camp meetings. He professed and enjoyed the blessing of perfect love. He preached earnestly, eloquently, and with power. He was persuasive, and his appeals led the impenitent to the altar speedily. Among his people he circulated constantly, winning them by his cordial manner, and his bright and sunny disposition. Everything connected with the Church and the Conference possessed the deepest interest for him. He made a vast circle of acquaintance, and knew intimately nearly every member of this Conference. Not until a third stroke of paralysis attacked him did his energy begin at all to abate.

As soon as brother Metts entered Conference, he married. May 21, 1861, Miss Eliza Wysong cast her lot in with him in the Master's work, and through all these years has cheerfully gone with him wherever the authority of the Church sent them. Faithfully, lovingly, unfalteringly, she has stood at his side all the time, and during these long months of decline, ministered unto him until their feet parted at the brink of the river. To-day she is alone, waiting the summons of the day of reunion in the Master's good pleasure.

There were given to them three sons and three daughters. Five are on this side, and one is with the Father. The oldest son, Charles, filled out his father's work the greater portion of the year past.

At our last session brother Metts was not really able to be present. It became apparent early in the year that he was ill, and an extreme pallor was on his face. The great, strong man was worn out in his Savior's service. In the summer he called a council of physicians, whose verdict was that he was suffering with one of the forms of what is called Bright's disease. He read up the disease, and knowing the full truth, faced it courageously, uncomplainingly. The decline continued steadily, while everything was done that skill, love and unwearied attention could perform. He was able to sit up until seven weeks before his release. Then he took to his bed. Naturally, many other complications set in, and every organ was affected. A portion of the time, especially toward the last, he was delirious. Then again he would be perfectly rational.

He took the deepest interest in the work of the Conference, the list of appointments, and all the prospects of the coming year. He planned how he might attend this session, and how, if possible, he might not be made superannuated. He gained a glorious victory in the trial which often seems to be the lot of the saints on a dying bed, when for the last time the adversary makes his bitterest attack. He often said in the morning that he had "a hallelujah time" or "a camp-meeting time" during the night before. He would wish that he had the strength and voice to shout. He rejoiced in the company and prayers of his brethren. The greater portion of his illness he was desirous to live to do more work, but in due time his will became one with that of the Father, and he awaited in peace and patience the end.

Tuesday, March 8, the liberation came. He was perfectly conscious all the day, and knew all. When Brother Kemp, his Presiding Elder, came in, and asked how it was with him, he gave his last testimony in one word, "Wonderful." Brother Phillips came in, and he assented to his praying, and shortly after he ceased to breathe, not moving a muscle, nor making a struggle. Truly, it was wonderful with him, and it is wonderful with him to-day, "Lodged by the ministerial choir in the Redeemer's breast." He was in his fifty-seventh year.

The funeral services took place in the High Street Church in Muncie, on Friday, March 11, and were conducted by the Rev. B. A. Kemp, assisted by a multitude of his brethren in the ministry. The I. O. O. F. bore his remains to the cemetery, and laid them away with their ritual.

The longer one knew Brother Metts, the more did he love him. He was bright, cheerful, witty, intelligent, a man of affairs, interested in all that concerned the public, a close observer, a faithful worker in the uplift of humanity. In his family, loving, tender, true. In his outward life, without reproach, pure, a faithful herald of the Gospel. In this year, which is marked by so great a mortality among us, none of those who have fallen will be missed more than M. S. Metts. On this solemn occasion, with its unparalleled number of memoirs, there is no one for whom we mourn more sincerely than he. Every hand would lay a chaplet of praise to day to his memory. Farewell, my brother.

THE REV. HORTENSIVS M. LAMPORT.

A deep sadness has rested on this session of the North Indiana Conference. During the year the tidings have come one by one of the departure of ministers or of their companions, until we had a number of memoirs to prepare never equaled before. We trusted the Lord would stay his hand, yet on the very eve of the session came the word that one of the best beloved was not to be with us. With bated breath we said, "We shall not see Brother H. M. Lamport."

This godly man was the son of Chauncey M. and Adaline Lamport, born in St. Joseph county, Ind., one of four children, and having one brother a member of this Conference, the Rev. A. L. Lamport, as well as a cousin, the Rev. A. W. Lamport. He was born May 3, 1849. His youth was passed in the county of his birth. His education was completed at Evanston, and was such as to qualify him for any walk in life. He had a great taste for literature, a fine command of language and an especial genius for newspaper work.

He was married to Miss Mary J. Dally, May 27, 1875, who, with her son and two daughters, was so suddenly and terribly bereft.

Brother Lamport always enjoyed the sacred influences of a Christian home. His parents were earnest Christian workers before his birth. Before his conversion even he was convinced that he was called to preach should he ever accept of the covenant of reconciliation. When about eighteen years of age he was soundly converted under the labors of our sainted Brother Mann. After conversion his impressions of duty became still stronger. His brethren also recognized the call, and speedily gave him license to exhort, which was signed by Brother J. W. Miller. At the conclusion of his first sermon his prayer for a token of assurance as to his call was answered in the conversion of souls.

In the autumn of 1872 he was appointed by the Rev. W. S. Birch to supply the remainder of the year on the Hunteertown Circuit. At our session in 1873 he was admitted on trial. His appointments were: Hamilton, 2 years; Fremont, 2 years; Butler, 3 years; Bristol, 3 years; Ligonier, 3 years; Auburn, 5 years; Kendallville, 1 year. In all of these charges he did excellent work, and was faithful in every department. Every interest was carefully looked after, the collections taken and full. Souls were saved; the church edified; Zion built up. He was one of the first of our number to remain the term of five years. He built the beautiful church at Auburn.

He had all the work of this past year fully closed, and was ready to depart for Conference. Thursday, March 24, he accompanied his aged mother to Osceola: Friday evening, in company with his brother-in-law, Mr. Boles, he started for the station to take the train for Kendallville. This was the last seen of either of them, until the next morning, when their mutilated bodies were found by the railway track. It was evident that while walking on a side-track, they had been struck by cars which were being switched on that track, and they appear to have died almost instantly.

Although Brother Lamport disappeared from among men in the shadows of the night, we have no doubt that he passed out through the shadow into the endless day; although the chariot of his translation was so terrible to our eyes, to him it was as the chariot of Elijah bearing the faithful servant home. A pang, and then eternal glory; a groan, and then the approval, the song, the heavenly "hallelujah."

His funeral took place at Mishawaka, conducted by his Presiding Elder, the Rev. D. C. Woolpert, assisted by the Rev. F. G. Browne and others.

Brother Lamport was one of the best preachers in this Conference—terse, eloquent, polished, full of unction and power. Among us he had a wide influence, and was a member of our most important committees, and was trusted with great responsibilities. He was quiet, never uselessly speaking on the Conference floor. To know him was to love him. He was almost utterly guileless, destitute of self-seeking, and one of the most transparent and sincere of men. His supreme happiness was in his home, where he was most happily related. He was a hard student; he was very attentive to secret prayer, and in the closet was often most powerfully blest. Take him all in all, we shall not see his like again.

May his sudden glorification be an incentive to us to be as true and faithful, not forgetting that, "in such an hour as we think not, the Son of man cometh," for us. God sustain the stricken family.

MRS. ELEANOR LEWELLEN.

Eleanor, daughter of Jacob and Mary Kinert, was born in Perry county, Pennsylvania, March 19, 1820. When she was fourteen years old, her parents moved to Ohio, and settled at New Carlisle. While residing here both her parents and she united with the Presbyterian Church. After the death of her father, her mother and she changed their abode to Windsor, Indiana.

At this place she was married to our departed brother, the Rev. A. J. Lewellen, July 27, 1846. After a time they moved to Iowa, and in that State she became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, about the year 1856. When Brother Lewellen entered the ministry, she cheerfully gave her consent, and became the pastor's faithful, helpful wife. Her praise was in all the churches which her husband served during his membership with us.

Although Brother and Sister Lewellen had six children, only one remains to-day of all the family circle, Mrs. Van Horn, of Dunkirk.

About two years ago, Sister Lewellen was widowed, and she took up her home with her daughter. For many years she had not been strong, and at times was quite an invalid and comparatively helpless. After the death of her husband she declined rapidly, until about four weeks before her departure her health gave way completely. She lingered until Saturday evening, August 29, 1891, when she peacefully passed away, at the age of seventy one years, five months and ten days. During her final sickness she was perfectly resigned to the will of God, and frequently expressed her desire to depart and be with Christ. Even when unable to speak, she still continued to evince by tokens and beckonings, in answer to questions, that her faith was firm, and that all was well.

Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. J. M. Lewis, at Dunkirk, and her body was buried near Selma, Ind.

MRS. MARY WADE.

Mary Will, wife of the Rev. C. U. Wade, was born at Mansfield, Ohio, September 26, 1850, and died in the High street parsonage in Muncie, Ind., October 6, 1891, aged forty-one years and nine days.

She came with her parents, John and Rachel Will, to La Grange, when she was only four years old. She was educated at La Grange, Wolcottville, Ontario, and in the Music School of Fort Wayne College, now Taylor University.

She was a woman of much more than ordinary intellectual culture, reading the best of books only. When quite young, she became a member of the choir of the Methodist Church in La Grange, and was its organist for five or six years.

March 27, 1873, she was married to Cyrus U. Wade. She was the mother of three children. Little Earl went to live among the angels at the age of five months. Two boys, Ray and Will, remain. She was a kind and loving mother, thoughtfully devoted to her boys, for whom no sacrifice was too great, no self-denial withheld. Her tender, yet firm dealings, her faithful teaching, and her earnest prayers for her boys, made her to be a model mother.

As a wife, her own interests were all swallowed up in her devotion to her husband. She was ever watchful that no personal concern of comfort or ease of her own should in any way increase his burdens, or hinder him in his Master's work.

Such a life as hers can come through the influence of the divine grace only. She became a Christian when but a child, and her Christian graces grew with her years. The beauty and sweetness of her life were such as are produced by the mingling of the graces of a cultured intellect and a Christian heart.

Both nature and grace adapted her to the place she was called to occupy. Yet it was one of the hardest struggles of her life to consent to surrender her home and friends, and enter an itinerant's life. She had married a young and rising attorney, who had a sufficient and rapidly increasing income. She dwelt in her own home, beautified by her own taste and labor. She was near her parents, and amid her old schoolmates. Nothing earthly was lacking to fill life with sunshine. But amid all this, God called her husband to enter the ministry. To her, this meant the sacrifice of home, with all its pleasant and hallowed associations. It meant to go anywhere—everywhere; to live among strangers, labor for strangers, be sick among strangers, to die among strangers. But after a few days of tears and prayers, she made the sacrifice willingly. The home was sold and she entered cheerfully and heartily into the Master's work.

Sister Wade was always ready to do any part of the work. She would pray in the prayer-meeting, talk in the class-meeting, teach in the Sunday-school, sing in the choir, play the organ, work in the Missionary Society, mingle socially with the wealthy and cultured, or visit and help the most needy and ignorant.

Having done what she could, she did not fear her Lord's coming. For several weeks she knew that the end was near. She talked individually with each of the loved ones about her, and sent loving messages to the absent. She requested her Presiding Elder, the writer, to preach her funeral sermon from the text, "The Master calleth for thee," John 11, 28. She also asked the choir to sing her favorite hymn, "Rock of Ages," having thus made every thing "ready;" with her lamp trimmed, with the wedding garment on, she stepped into the "Chairot of Israel" at 9:40 P. M., and was borne away to the "Marriage supper of the Lamb." At her own request her remains were taken to LaGrange, Indiana, her old home, where a short service was held, and her remains were committed to earth.

B. A. KEMP.

MRS. SARAH NORRIS.

Sarah, daughter of Israel and Margaret Uncapher, and wife of the Rev. S. C. Norris, was born in Grovertown, Ind., April 6, 1857, and died in Andrews, Ind., September 5, 1891, aged thirty-four years, four months and twenty eight days.

Sister Norris was converted at the early age of thirteen, and united with the United Brethren Church, of which she remained a faithful member until 1889, when, in company with her husband, she joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. She enjoyed such advantages as the District Schools confer, but deep piety and varied experience supplied any deficiencies. Her conversion was joyous, and her Christian experience one of power.

She was married to Brother Norris, November 2, 1877. She left three sons. For ten years she was the faithful wife of the itinerant preacher. She went into the work gladly. She never repined if their field of labor was difficult, but was always cheerful and hopeful. The sweetness of her disposition made friends wherever she went, and rendered her a rare help to her husband.

For several years her health had not been good. The first of January, 1891, she began to decline. Consumption became fully manifest, and declared itself as beyond all aid. Yet was she confined to her bed some ten days only. Her last days were full of joyful expectation. She gave every evidence of her preparation for the great change, and declared that all was well. A short time before the end, for she was conscious to the last moment, her sister asked her, "Sarah, you will meet me at the pearly gates?" "Yes," she replied, "yes," and her face lit up as if with the reflection of the gates so near, so open for her reception. In this joyous and confident state of mind she sweetly fell on sleep, and was forever with the Lord in that land where there is no more death.

Her remains were laid away at Grovertown, her Presiding Elder, the Rev. C. W. Lynch, conducting the funeral rites.

A faithful and true woman has thus early ceased from her labors. May her works follow her.

MRS. ANN E. EDMONDSON.

Ann Eliza Lowe, widow of the late Rev. W. R. Edmondson, of the North Indiana Conference, died on the first day of the new year, 1892, aged fifty-six years.

Sister Edmondson was born in Decatur county, Indiana. Her family removed to Howard county and made their residence in Kokomo. Here she was married, here she spent her long widowhood, here she died, and here she was buried. When she was nine years of age she was soundly converted. Her Christian life was one of the sweetest and truest it has ever been the lot of the writer to know. When Brother Edmondson was pastor at Kokomo, in 1854, she was married to him before she was twenty years old.

For ten years only Brother and Sister Edmondson shared the minister's life. Happy was their home and precious was the work to their hearts. One little daughter came to gladden their household, but was taken away in infancy. In 1864 Brother Edmondson was suddenly removed from labor to reward during his pastorate at Huntington, leaving our sister a young widow. She returned to Kokomo and its vicinity to be amid her relatives. For some twenty-eight years she remained faithful to his memory, and enriched the local church by her godly life. For the last five years of her life she had the care of her aged mother, who required constant attention. This labor did much to shorten the life of our sister and to enfeeble a constitution naturally weak. Being attacked by the prevailing influenza, she came to the home of her brother in Kokomo for treatment, and in his house she suddenly grew worse and expired almost unexpectedly on New Year's Day.

Her funeral took place at Kokomo, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. J. S. Bitler, and she was interred in Crown Point at that city.

The writer had the pleasure to be Sister Edmondson's pastor for three years, and he takes great pleasure in testifying to the great worth of this sister, her pure Christian life, her unflinching faithfulness, her cheerful readiness to do any thing and every thing asked of her. She was always in the prayer meeting, never absent from church. Her words were always kind, her judgment charitable, her spirit loving. She was trusted by the church, made one of its officary, and looked upon as a stay of the cause.

Faithfully she has served her day and now rests from her labors. Her works are her best monument.

MRS. ELEANOR S. BRANDYBERRY.

Eleanor S. was the daughter of Barton B. and Rebecca H. Snow, and was born October 10, 1859, near where Ceylon, Ind., is now situated. Her parents were highly educated and religious people. Her father was a physician, and also served our church as a pastor for eight years. From them she received an excellent start, a grand foundation of principle and of faith.

When Sister Brandyberry was only thirteen, her mother died, and two years later her father was also taken away. She rose equal to the circumstances, and in company with an older brother, met the heavy responsibilities that devolved upon them. They kept together the orphaned brothers and sisters, and gave them good educations. For twelve years she was as a faithful mother to them.

As she approached womanhood, she engaged in teaching in the public schools. Eight years were occupied in this work, and in attendance at the Ridgeville College and the Northern Indiana Normal School at Valparaiso.

September 21, 1889, she was married to the Rev. N. Brandyberry, to whom she was a devoted companion, full of encouragement and hope.

She was converted in 1878, and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In her later years her health was impaired, and pulmonary trouble became evident. In hope of recovery, our brother ceased from his ministerial work, and a change of climate was sought. Marked improvement took place, but an attack of influenza added her to the long list of victims to this insidious and fatal malady. She died January 31, 1892, in Knoxville, Tenn., aged thirty-two years. To her husband and her sisters she talked daily about death. To them her parting words were, "I am trusting in Jesus. Since we have been so scattered in this world, I hope in the next we may all meet." God grant the prayer of his saint.

Sister Brandyberry was very conscientious, tender and thoughtful to all around her. She was a beautiful singer. She was very faithful to the church of her choice. She had great success in training children for church work and entertainments. In work in the public schools, she won great praise. She had a lofty ideal of what home should be, and did everything to make it perfect. She was excellently adapted to her husband in all respects, and her broken plans for the home were the hardest things for her to surrender at the last. But when that surrender had been made, she was anxious to depart and be with that Lord in whom she had believed.

Her body was brought back to the North, and her funeral and interment were at Ceylon, Ind., conducted by the Rev. A. E. Mahin.

MRS. EMILY A. GREENMAN.

Emily Amanda Witter, was the daughter of Alfred and Lucretia Witter, both life-long Methodists, who brought up their large family in the fear of the Lord. She was the third of a family of twelve children, of whom four only survive. Eleven years ago the mother died at the age of seventy, and her father preceded her by ten days only, being in his ninety-second year.

Sister Greenman was born April 23, 1833, in Middlebury, Ohio, and died in Marion, Indiana, January 24, 1882, in her fifty-ninth year. About the year 1840 her parents settled in LaGrange county, Indiana. Here in early life she gave her heart to God, and began her long and useful Christian life.

She was married to Brother Greenman May 21, 1852, our brother being then a young minister in this Conference. For these almost forty years she has shared in all the vicissitudes of the lot of a preacher, and has discharged her part to the full satisfaction of all. She was the mother of seven children, two of whom died in infancy, and five have lived to maturity. One son, the Rev. A. W. Greenman, is a member of this Conference; has been a missionary to Mexico, and is now stationed at Montevideo, South America. Some nine years ago, on account of her father, the family home was made in Marion.

About two weeks before Sister Greenman's death she found her father at the dinner hour lying unconscious on the floor of his room. In the excitement of the moment she endeavored, by herself, to raise him from the floor and return him to his couch. In this effort she inflicted some injury upon herself from which she never recovered, and from which all medical skill failed to restore her. She suffered intensely, but with great patience and resignation. While she was unconscious a portion of the time, yet the last day she was perfectly rational, and with very great emphasis, assured her husband of her faith and her trust in God. Peacefully and quietly she passed away on the holy Sabbath.

On the 26th of January, her funeral was conducted by the Rev. B. A. Kemp, assisted by many other members of the Conference, and was attended by a multitude of friends.

The light has gone from the happy home of our dear Brother Greenman. She was generally and favorably known in this Conference, and was everywhere regarded as a conscientious, quiet, consistent, Christian woman. She was always in full sympathy with her husband in his work and took an active part in it, but her greatest power, and most especially of late years, was in her home, ever caring for its comforts and blessings. She was the center of love and attraction, both to father, husband and children; her energies went out in a faithful, loving self-sacrifice, as a noble and true wife and mother. She was loved and honored by all her acquaintances. The community, and the church and the home have sustained a great loss, which we know is her eternal gain.

May our Heavenly Father be with Brother Greenman, and sustain him in these trying days.

MRS. ELLA CHAMNESS.

Ella, wife of the Rev. J. P. Chamness, died in the parsonage in Geneva, Ind., February 24, 1892, in her thirty-first year.

She was the daughter of William and Elizabeth P. Stout, and was born in Peru, Ind. When a child she was baptized by the Rev. F. T. Simpson, of this Conference. When only thirteen years old she was deprived of a mother's care, and there devolved upon her heavy cares and responsibilities. She had to act in the capacity of a mother to keep together a large family, five of whom were younger than herself. In such a relation she discharged her duties most faithfully, and in a way worthy of all praise.

In her nineteenth year she was married to our brother. Three children were given to them. Eight years ago both she and her husband were converted, and united with the United Brethren church, there being no Methodist church near. Three years ago she changed her membership to our church. For six years of this time she has been our brother's faithful helper in the ministerial life. In all her relations she manifested a beautiful Christian character, and showed herself full of purity, truth and faithfulness. Her sympathy and tenderness went out to the unfortunate and distressed. She was held in the highest respect in all the churches, and all were her friends. Naturally she was animated and cheerful. Her presence filled the little family circle with the sunshine of happiness and joy.

About the last of October she passed through a severe siege of typhoid fever, lasting six weeks. When she seemed to be recovering, the fatal influenza supervened, under which her wasted strength slowly and surely gave way. With great gentleness and patience she endured the long period of suffering. She talked freely of her prospects, and calmly faced the probable end. She made known all her requests, and specified about her funeral and burial. Almost her last words, as death was stealing upon her, were, "How sweet it is to trust in Jesus."

Funeral services were conducted at Geneva, by her Presiding Elder, the Rev. A. E. Mahin, assisted by the Rev. N. Brandyberry. The remains were taken to Dunkirk, where services were held by the Rev. J. M. Lewis, and the burial took place.

May God bless this itinerant's home, from which the light has gone out. And God bless the bereft minister who sits with his children, while the mother's chair is vacant.

MRS. SARAH J. SELLS.

Sarah J. Williams was born in Adams county, Ohio, May 17, 1836. She was the youngest daughter of Josiah and Emmelia Williams. She came with her parents when she was only a child to Delaware county, Indiana.

In childhood she was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, beginning a Christian life which was quiet indeed, but full of the graces of the spirit. She developed life-long graces of character, which made her life one of beauty, and gave to her memory a peculiar fragrance. Patience, kindness, love, tender attention to the sick and the poor, and a great devotion to her home, were the most marked of her many virtues.

Our sister was married to the Rev. T. Sells by the Rev. W. S. Birch, April 27, 1866. She was willing to cast in her lot with the itinerant, and knowing all its requirements, cheerfully entered upon the work, which she always discharged faithfully and well. This marriage being childless, our brother and sister were drawn especially near to each other, and her departure makes the separation especially sorrowful and lonely to our bereaved brother, with whom we so tenderly sympathize to-day.

When Brother Sells took the superannuated relation, their home was made in Muncie, and here the last years of our sister were passed, and here she entered into everlasting life, the last of January, in her fifty-sixth year.

The last illness of Sister Sells was brief. Before it was realized that she was dangerous, she had become delirious, so there was no opportunity at the last to add to the testimony of her life. She had said at the first that if she did not get better she could not live, and her husband had said, "I suppose you are trusting in Jesus?" and she answered, "I have always trusted in Him." More was not said at the time, and when hope of recovery was gone, she was beyond speech.

Her funeral took place on Monday, February 1, at Muncie, and was conducted by the Rev. B. A. Kemp, assisted by several brethren, and she was buried at Muncie, Ind.

May heavenly hope, born of faith, be the stay of our brother until the day of their reunion.

MRS. MAUD NELSON.

Maud Sanders, beloved wife of the Rev. W. M. Nelson, died suddenly in the parsonage at South Whitley, Ind., March 30, 1892, in her twenty-ninth year.

Mrs. Nelson was the daughter of Isaac and Lavina Sanders, and was born near Cicero, Hamilton county, Ind., December 5, 1863. She was converted when she was ten years of age, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was indeed an ornament, an honor and a support. Her faithful Christian life seemed to be without a flaw, and especially during the last two years of her life her Christian experience was so deep and true, her consecration so perfect, that it lights up this sudden affliction with a halo, like a rainbow transforming the storm.

On the 24th day of August, 1887, she was married to Brother Nelson, then of Noblesville. A year later she accompanied her husband in his entrance into the ministry, encouraging him in his determination to devote his life to the Master's service. During all these years of his very successful labor she has been one of the sources of his power, and her cheer, her counsels, her prayers, and her faithful helpfulness, have been his stay, so that the memory of all these things will evermore be to him an inspiration to patiently and faithfully continue the work. As long as health and strength were hers, she was always ready to do everything within her power. Her praise was in all the churches. The atmosphere that surrounded her was one of true piety. She attracted both young and old. Two years ago she entered into an exceedingly deep and abiding experience of entire consecration that made her path to lead through the land of Beulah.

For the last three years she has been in very feeble health, sadly afflicted. All this was borne with a patience and sweet resignation that marked her chamber as the very gate of heaven. Subject to heart failure, she declined very rapidly the last week of her stay in her earthly home. Yet she expected to live and to do many years of labor for the Savior she loved. In such an hour as was not expected the messenger came, and without warning, with not even five minutes for a farewell, he led forth the beautiful soul to be forever with the Lord.

The funeral was held at Noblesville, April 1, 1892, and was conducted by the Rev. H. J. Norris.

An ever obedient child, a tender sister, a loving and devoted wife, an exemplary follower of the Lord Jesus, a beautiful character, a useful life, a gracious and fragrant memory, is the summation and verdict of earth concerning Sister Nelson. Has not the Elder Brother added also his approval in terms far beyond all power of our earthly tongue to express?
